

Cuban Invasion Secret Hurt Nixon, Klein Says

that Mr. Nixon's desire to keep clubbed with his own weapon. nedy in the 1960 campaign.

1960 presidential campaign and himself." now editor of the San Diego

(AP) Hichard M. Nixon's for- in a crucial period of the cammer press secretary said today paign Mr. Nixon was being on the eve of the fourth telsthe secret of Cuban invasion And, because he had a strong Nixon and Mr. Kennedy), We plans caused him to be sense of his responsibility to were in Ne wyork when Mr. state ding ushers, Senator Smath were in Ne wyork when Mr. sage of Flordia and Representate the sense of his responsibility to Kennedy, late in the day, made begin Torbert MacDonald of Mr. state ding ushers, Senator Smath were in Ne wyork when Mr. state ding ushers, Senator Smath were ding ushers, Senator Smath wer choice but to argue against Mr. a proposal which directly out-Kennedy—and thus against a lined the exact program which flerbert G. Klein, press sec- Kennedy-and thus against a cussed briefly in his new book, parts campaign in 1960; and Elix Crises, and which was dis- and Kennedy was successively puted this past week by the nem.

Mr. Klein's version of the in- reasons, kept secret.

"For the Vice President and in Western phase of his staff," Mr. Klein said, "the Mr." Western phase of his staff," for the presidency. angriest moments of the campaign took place on October 20 how vision debate (between Mr. retary for Mr. Nixon during the policy he previously originated was being carried out—and

"Here is what we thought former Vice President has dis- bett nator of the Western Sta usher at John Kennedy's w ding, manager of his 1958 S And ate race and director of . Western phase of his campa

> Now all three are runn for Congress, along with I tilre others of the President's w state ding ushers, Senator Smath had followed with quick orders putting this into effect. If seemed obvious to us that Mr. Kennedy was striking back after realizing he was losing Union, said the former vice cident appeared in sunday riere is what we thought after realizing he was losing had happened:

It is the story of the Union, that had happened:

It is the story of the Cuban intervention a campaign the Nixon staff couldn't tell during the 1960 campaign."

When Mr. Kennedy came out "It is the story of the Cuban intervention. Mr. lissue" he said "which the in announcing that he had gueried and we were told Mr. 101 (Caban intervention, Mr. lissue," he said, "which the in announcing that he had quoried and we were told Mr.